

Mr. Powell,

I would like to express my discontent with the way you are handling the broadcast ownership decision. You are supposed to be serving the American people, yet you do listen to our dissent or even allow us to understand exactly how the rules will change come Monday. I hope someday you look at yourself in shame when you realize you're just another PR tool like your father. Have you already accepted the fact in selfishness?